

DECLASSIFIED

Declassified and Approved for Release, April 23, 2004

Delta Team and the Development of "CB"

Beginning in 1982, members of Delta Team began work on a drug code-named "CB." Working in a laboratory outside of Langley, the team consisted of [redacted] and [redacted].

Their work built upon the research done in [redacted] after the close of the [redacted] when [redacted] decided to [redacted].

Experiments were begun shortly after the final version of the drug appeared, and it was found that it was [redacted]. Further it was also noted that:

[redacted]

Despite these findings and the potential use for [redacted] still, it was determined that it [redacted]. Finally, in 2004 it was determined that [redacted].

WARNING NOTICE SENSITIVE INTELLIGENCE SOURCES AND METHODS INVOLVED

RAY S. CLINE Deputy Director (Intelligence)

Classified by [redacted] Except when [redacted] declassification schedule of E.O. 13526 [redacted] automatically declassified on [redacted] Date [redacted] to [redacted]

Handwritten notes: b-3, 105-3172, ORIGINAL FILED IN

Handwritten signature and initials: [redacted]

Handwritten number: 105-313320